

157 NEW SHIPS IN THREE YEAR PLAN

Senate Committees Add $150,000,000 to Army and Navy Defence Bills.

MANY INCREASES MADE

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The Senate Military and Naval Affairs committees have taken the initiative in proposing to put the United States in a position of readiness for war. Recommendations of more than $100,000,000 increase for the army and nearly $50,000,000 increase for the navy, over and above what the House recommended, are reported today from the Senate end of the Capitol.

A formal report from the Senate Committee on Naval Affairs was filed today by Senator Swanson of Virginia. It calls for a building programme of ten battleships, six battle cruisers, ten scout cruisers, fifty torpedo boat destroyers, the fleet submarines, fifty-eight coast submarines, besides other auxiliary craft aggregating 157 new ships, all to be included in the three year building programme.

The committee goes even further than the report of the General Board, of which Admiral George Dewey is president, but it is understood that the board heartily endorses the increase. In explaining its report in this respect the committee says:

"It seems to the committee that the programme for five years proposed by the General Board was not sufficient to bring the naval forces of the United States to the position which they ought to hold among the navies of the world at an early enough period. The committee therefore reduced the time covered by the programme from five years to three years, the committee being convinced that the sooner we could get an adequate navy the better, as the navy must always be our first line of defence and we have two great coasts to defend.

Increase for Ammunition.

"The committee increased the appropriation for ammunition for vessels from $11,245,950 to $19,485,500. This was made necessary on account of the increased cost of real powder and the fact that the appropriations for the next two years, $19,485,500 and $19,485,500, are $8,000,000 more than the House bill. It is pointed out that the Senate committee's report not only has strong Republican support back of it but that it is endorsed by President Wilson and Secretary Daniels. Secretary Daniels issued today a statement in which he fully concurred in the drastic measures of real readiness advocated by the committee.

The great increase in the building programme is, of course, the feature of the bill, but other items of importance in the House appropriations were the following:

Arming and equipping naval militia, 100,000 ships, 100,000 militia of Illinois and Minnesota, $40,000; bureau of ordnance items, including $1,500,000 for batteries for merchant auxiliaries, and $18,000 for a torpedo station at New York; experimental laboratory in connection with the navy yards, $1,000,000; improvements in navy yards, more than $2,000,000; $2,485,260 for pay of the navy based on the increase of the enlisted personnel to $7,000,000 from $4,000,000, and an increase in the enlisted strength of the Marine Corps, to 17,400 men; $1,000,000 for the purchase of 100,000 pairs of which will be for service in New York harbor.

The Army Increases.

Coinciding with the increase recommended by the Senate Naval Committee, the House Appropriations Committee has tentatively agreed upon by the Senate Committee on Military Affairs. The bill will be ready to be reported to the Senate.

In its plan to put the army on a real basis of preparedness the committee has seen that the military experts have had the lessons which the European war has pointed out. Thus the House appropriation of $9,000,000 for the National Guard is increased to $14,300,000.

The importance of field artillery and the necessity of an abundance of these weapons has been one of the striking lessons of the war in Europe, and the old ratio of 3 per cent. artillery in proportion to troops in the field is now considered an antiquated idea by army officers. Consequently the National Guard, the Senate committee's efforts succeed, will be equipped in this important arm as well as modern armies now fighting in Europe.

The Senate committee has followed the same idea with reference to aeroplanes and has increased the appropriation by the House by the sum of $1,000,000 and aviation from $2,775,000 to $4,125,000.

This sum is sufficient to build up a really efficient aeronautical branch of the army. Other increases made by the Senate committee are in the following items: Ordnance stores and ammunition, House appropriation of $4,500,000, increased by the Senate committee to $12,750,000; small arms target practice, House appropriation of $1,200,000, increased by the Senate committee to $3,940,000; automatic machine rifles and equipment, House appropriation of $2,000,000 increased to $6,586,150; armored motor cars, House appropriation of $300,000 increased to $1,145,000. The last named increase is distributed as follows: Fifty armored cars, 200 shielded motorcycles with side cars, 400 motor cars with side cars for ammunition and 100 individual motorcycles with side cars.

SUBMARINES AT CAPE MAY.

Arrive for Independence Day Celebration in the Harbor.

CAPE MAY, N. J., July 1.—The U. S. S. Buchanan, in command of Lieutenant Commander David E. Boyd, arrived in the Cape May harbor this afternoon and was shortly followed by the submarine L-3, Lieutenant Dupree J. Friedell in command, and the submarine L-4, Lieutenant Hackett, Jr., in command. The U. S. S. Vixen with the New Jersey naval reserve and the Beale, with the Pennsylvania naval volunteers will arrive tomorrow, as well as two other submarines. They will take part in the Fourth of July demonstration in the harbor.

BIG CUNARD BUILDING READY.

Ship Company Completes Splendid Structure in London.

The new building for the head offices of the Cunard Steamship Company on the Pier Head, Liverpool, England, has just been completed. The building embodies many features of the Italian Renaissance as represented in the Farnese Palace in Rome, although the Cunard building is much more vast.

The impression of the new building is one of spaciousness. It is seven stories high, 125 feet. The front on the Pier Head is 170 feet wide and the depth 380 feet. The floor space aggregates 1,000,000 square yards, or approximately twenty acres.

HUGHES ANSWERS CALL OF MOVIE MEN; TO CAMPAIGN IN MOST MODERN FASHION

THE latest photograph of Charles Evans Hughes and his family, taken yesterday on the lawn of his summer home at Bridgehampton, L. I. TAFT AND T. R. MAY MEET

The great Republican serial photo drama, "Charles Evans Hughes in Action," will be filmed tomorrow afternoon at Bridgehampton, L. I. For the first chapter of the interesting series, Tremden has been selected as the scene, and in and about its confines the grinders of reels are expected to dispose themselves in such a way as to show forth the Hughes style of home life and recreation. Numerous motion picture men have been invited, and there isn't any doubt that before another week has ended Mr. Hughes will be campaigning in the most approved modern fashion.

WOMEN ORGANIZE TO SUPPORT HUGHES

Will Form Branches of Alliance in All Cities Throughout Country.

More than one hundred women, prominent socially and because of their activities in various other spheres, have organized the Women's National Committee of the Hughes Alliance in support of Charles E. Hughes.

These women have been selected from many cities and sections. They include Republicans, Progressives and independents. Headquarters have been opened in Room 168, Hotel Astor, and branches are being organized throughout the country.

From now until the polls are closed this organization will conduct an active campaign in cooperation with the Republican National Committee. The temporary secretary of the new organization is Frances A. Keller, and temporary treasurer is Mrs. Clifford Pinchot.

Among the New Yorkers on the committee are Mrs. Mary Antin, Mrs. Vincent Astor, Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt, Mrs. Herbert Satterlee, Mrs. H. P. Davidson, Mrs. John Hays Hammond and Mrs. Henry L. Harkness. The full committee will be on July 7 at a luncheon given by Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney at Roslyn, L. I. A definite programme for activities will be outlined here, and the committee members will have the opportunity to meet Mr. and Mrs. Hughes. The full committee is as follows:

Mrs. Cornelia Aldie, Mrs. J. W. Alsop, Mrs. Lutz Anderson, Mrs. Mary Antin, Mrs. J. Ogden Armour, Mrs. Vincent Astor, Mrs. Robert Bacon, Mrs. R. Livingston Beckman, Mrs. Vincent Boone, Mrs. Harry B. So he informed William H. Willcox, Republican national chairman, yesterday that he had decided to take Monday afternoon off for the benefit of the camera men. He informed Mr. Willcox that he would be at their disposal absolutely, which means that he has no idea of taking a holiday. The camera men have told Mr. Willcox that they intend to exercise their privilege of having Mr. Hughes do whatever they ask him to do.

With this announcement Mr. Willcox said away yesterday afternoon to the Adirondacks, where he will remain until after the Fourth. Before that he had fixed the date for notification of Mr. Hughes that he has been nominated by the Republican party as its candidate for the Presidency. This ceremony will take place at Carnegie Hall on the afternoon of some day between July 20 and July 25, and Mr. Willcox intimated that there is a strong likelihood that upon the stage with other distinguished guests on that occasion will appear the only living ex-presidents, Col. Theodore Roosevelt and William Howard Taft. Whether there will be a meeting of the two men before that date or whether the notification ceremony will be held upon a fitting time for these two former friends to unite in a handshake for Republican success no one about to do.

HUGHES GETS MUCH HELP FROM HIS WIFE

Sea Air and Golf Make Nomininee Feel Sprightlier Than for Months.

BEGINS TOUR IN AUGUST

BRIDGEHAMPTON, N. Y., July 1.—Sea air and daily exercise on the links have made Charles E. Hughes feel sprightlier than at any time in many months. He said today after a round of the golf course that he had thoroughly enjoyed the last few weeks. It was just three weeks ago today that he resigned from the Supreme Court to accept the Presidential nomination. He was very tired when he laid aside the judicial robes, but now, despite the many conferences and political planning, he feels rejuvenated.

Yesterday was his first day of real relaxation since last October. He intends to continue exercising as long as possible, devoting the mornings to golf as a preliminary to work at his desk in the afternoon. This despite the confession that Lawrence H. Green, his secretary, invariably defeats him in the matches on the links.

When he arrived here a week ago Mr. Hughes told Bridgehamptonites he wanted them to consider him a neighbor, and they have taken him at his word. Members of his family have formed many acquaintanceships since they moved to Tremden, and today the Misses Helen, Catherine and Elizabeth Hughes walked arm-in-arm to a tour of the village's small shopping district.

In his correspondence and even in the preparation of his speeches the nomininee receives much assistance from Mrs. Hughes. He has referred to her as his chief counselor and it is known that he places a high valuation on her suggestions and criticisms. This was regarded as somewhat significant that although former President Taft was here less than two hours yesterday, and the former President and the candidate discussed the campaign in detail, Mrs. Hughes was present at the conference.

Mr. Hughes's active participation in the campaign, from present indications, will begin in August. It is probable his first tour will take him to the Pacific coast, the outward trip probably being made by the northern route and the return by the southern route.

Though Mr. Hughes does not discuss the subject for publication it is predicted here that he will approve the selection of a few Progressive friends for places on the campaign committee.

HOUSE PASSES VACATION BILL.

Measure Gives 30 Days Leave to Navy Yard Employees.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The Talbot bill, granting thirty days annual leave to permanent employees of the government navy yards and arsenals, passed the House today without objection.

The bill affects the employees of all the government arsenals and navy yards throughout the country. The number of men affected by the proposed legislation is estimated to be 40,000. The measure as it passed the House, provided that "each and every employee of the navy yards, gun factories, naval stations and arsenals of the United States Government is hereby granted thirty working days leave of absence each year without forfeiture of pay during such leave, provided that pro rata leave with pay shall be allowed to those serving fractional parts of a year, and provided further that in all cases the heads of divisions shall have discretion as to the time when the leave can best be allowed."

It is understood that the Talbot measure will soon be acted upon by the Senate.

AID SOCIETIES FORM COMBINE FOR PEACE

Will Concentrate Energies for Relief, With a Fund of $10,000,000.

Plans were announced yesterday by the American Committee of the International Reconstruction League, 200 Fifth avenue, for a $10,000,000 combination of war relief agencies to consolidate their work during and after the war and to prepare the way for permanent peace.

The scheme had been discussed abroad by Frederick H. Allen, treasurer of the American committee, who expects to return next week. The organization hopes to have $10,000,000 to begin its work and John Moffat, one of the originators of the plan, said that very large sums have been pledged thus far.

The purpose of the league are these: Immediate relief work for the suffering throughout the war; American aid for the stricken people when they turn from war to the task of rehabilitating their devastated homes; an educational plan to arouse public opinion to the practicality of a worldwide arrangement that will insure a lasting peace with a view to pledging America to its support.

The general organization is to be composed of the largest war relief societies. Great mass meetings are projected to acquaint the public with the plans of the International Reconstruction League. Its primary object is lasting peace. However, it is the intention of the league to initiate peace negotiations. Its work will be devoted in that respect to reconstruction after the war and to educational propaganda for a lasting international law code and international machinery to enforce it.

The tentative scheme outlined by the league is to get this country to pledge its support to a permanent code of international law, a world court of justice; the obligation of all signatory powers to pledge their economic and military resources to the execution of the court's decrees, and the limitation of armament and its international control.

Among those associated in the work of the league are Mrs. J. Borden Harrison, Ludlow M. Garrison, Henry Lee Higginson, Charles D. Norton, Basil Miles, Mrs. William H. Stratton, Mrs. James W. Wadsworth, Jr., and Mrs. Leonard Wood. The cooperating organizations are the Allied Relief Committee of that organization, the Committee for the Relief of Belgian Prisoners in Germany, Queen of the Belgians Fund, American Committee Collecting for the American Red Cross, the American and Russian War Relief Committee.

400 SCHOOLBOYS GO INTO BROOKLYN CAMP

Uncle Sam Seized Two Lots of Cots for Mexico, but Youngsters Had More Hidden.

Four hundred schoolboys in khaki rendezvoused at Eighty-sixth street and Fourth avenue, Bay Ridge, at 10 o'clock yesterday morning, marched to Fort Hamilton and plunged into the shaking down process of the first day of the military instruction camp conducted by the National School Camp Association of Brooklyn.

But before the camp was established those in charge of it were forced to deceive the Government. Last week the Government seized 450 cots the association had purchased in Baltimore. The association bought a second lot, but Uncle Sam, needing the cots along the Mexican border, seized those too. Accordingly Arthur S. Hoffman, William Hard, Frederick L. Long, Edwin N. Appleton and James F. Free, the officers of the association, purchased a third lot and hid them in the cellar of the Army and Navy Stores in West Forty-second street, whisking them to Fort Hamilton while Uncle Sam was busy with other duties.

"I believe this is the first camp of its kind in the country," said Mr. Long. "We intend that it shall be Exhibit A for the United States to show what ought to be done with schoolboys. The camp is going to last two months. It costs each boy his uniform, 10 cents a month dues and 20 cents a day for his maintenance. It is possible for a boy to stay only two weeks if he so wishes."

Sergeant John Ruchok, Twenty-ninth United States Infantry, is the chief instructor of the camp, having come on from Panama for this purpose.

CAMP DEWEY FOR BOYS.

Three Hundred Youngsters to Drill Near New London, Conn.

Three hundred schoolboys over 14 years old will soon have an opportunity to spend the summer in Camp Dewey, which has been established on seventy-five acres on the Thames River, near New London, Conn., by the United States Junior Naval Reserve, Inc. It is the first naval and merchant marine training camp of that organization.

Competent instructors, inspectors and supervisors will have charge, and the expense to each boy is slight, as the camp is largely supported by contributions from persons in sympathy with its aims.

BORDER ARMY'S NEED MAKES WOMEN WAIT

Mrs. Milbank's Camp Won't Open at Monticello Until Wednesday.

Because the Government decided to prepare for possible war with Mexico members of Mrs. J. Hungerford Milbank's International Order of Military Women couldn't encamp at Birchwood Lake yesterday as they planned. Three hundred members had enrolled to leave by the Ontario and Western Railway at 11:45 yesterday and had their uniforms, guns, fishing rods, etc., all packed when the news came that there weren't any tents there and that many of the other things needed in a military camp were lacking. A stern Uncle Sam had requisitioned so many of these things for the Mexican border that Gen. Milbank couldn't get any for her army.

The camp will be equipped by Wednesday, however, and on that day the first installment of campers will leave by the Ontario and Western from West Forty-second street. Gen. Milbank will entrust the opening of the camp to some of her junior officers, as she cannot go till July 10.

"I am a wife and mother," she said yesterday, "and husbands and children have some rights after all. But beginning with July 10 I shall have charge of the camp."

Women and girls will not be alone in the camp. There will be section for married men and their families. Girls between the ages of 13 and 17 will be in the junior section of the camp and girls over 17 in the senior section. An active life is planned. Beginning at 8 A. M. the campers will fish, tramp, receive military instruction, listen to lectures and engage in various forms of outdoor recreation. The board is $10 a week, not including uniforms, and no one is to appear in camp without that khaki uniform in which Gen. Milbank drills her regiment.

Birchwood Lake is near Monticello, in Sullivan county, and is 1,600 above sea level, though only 125 miles from New York city. Nurses and physicians will be in attendance when required. Groups of campers will be going up every Monday and Wednesday till the end of the season, September 8.
